SUBJECT: GENERAL ASSEMBLY COUNTER-TERRORISM STRATEGY
RESOLUTION NEGOTIATION RESULTS

11. Action request para 4.

12. Summary. Consultations on a resolution on the Counter-terrorism strategy review concluded August 11 with tentative agreement on the text. Member states met during early August under the Chairmanship of Guatemalan Permanent Representative Gert Rosenthal to prepare a draft resolution for adoption at the conclusion of the Strategy review scheduled for September 4-5. The text (para 5) has been agreed "ad referendum" by all delegations except Syria which is awaiting instructions. Japan and the U.S. joined the agreement on the text but have expressed reservations pending clarification with regard to financial implications. End Summary

13. USUN Legal joined other delegations in discussion of a draft resolution on the Counter-terrorism strategy review. Delegations said they preferred not to reopen the 2006 Strategy (60/288) and would strive for a relatively short consensus text. Under Rosenthal's skillful Chairmanship that objective was achieved. Discussion focused primarily on the operational aspects of the next phase of work to implement the "Strategy". The Organization of the Islamic Conference (OIC), represented by Pakistan, was pre-occupied with ensuring adequate safeguards to control the UN Secretariat which they said had exceeded the mandate of resolution 60/288. The OIC did, however, co-operate with Western efforts to steer the text away from the issues which, in the past, have made agreement difficult. Syria, nevertheless pushed for references to "root causes" and "foreign occupation". More moderate members of the OIC prevailed and ultimately, Syria was isolated from the OIC consensus to accept the text. The Syrian delegation is seeking instructions but the Chairman will send the text to the General Assembly President with a recommendation that it be presented for adoption in September.

14. Japan and the U.S. have expressed reservations with regard to possible financial implications of operative paragraph 12. Although, delegations asked for a statement of budget implications from the Secretariat, they refused to provide it pending further information from member states regarding the details of the mandate in that paragraph. Specifically, they have asked how many briefings and reports will be required. The Japanese and U.S. delegations are working with the EU and OIC to provide that data and develop a formula which will enable the resolution to be implemented within the current budget. Action Request: USUN requests instructions to join consensus on the text (para 5), if the budget issue is resolved.
